

GRC international relief in Europe

The GRC is also active in European countries - for example Greece, Armenia, Azerbaijan and the Ukraine - in a number of diverse projects. Find out more here about emergency projects, medical support and support for disadvantaged people.

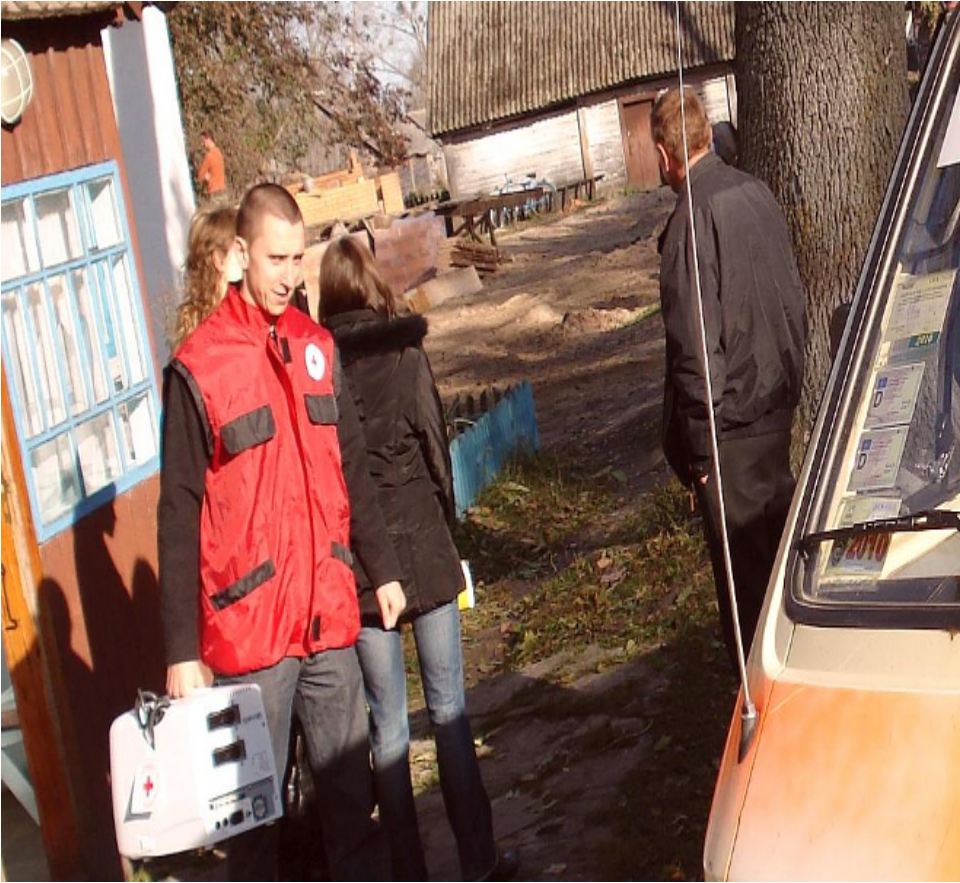

Greece: Refugees

Greece has become the most important stopover for refugees who travel to Europe. The high number of refugees leads to poor circumstances. The GRC supports the Hellenic Red Cross with relief items and hygiene measures.

read more

Chernobyl: Mobile laboratories to fight against cancer

30 years after the nuclear disaster in Chernobyl, the situation for people in rural areas is still very difficult.

read more

-

Ukraine: Help for the victims of Civil Unrest

Since the end of 2013, there have been civil disturbances in the Ukraine finally escalating in a conflict between government forces and pro-Russian supporters in the East of the Ukraine in February 2014.

read more