GRC international cooperation in the Middle East

In the Middle East some of the worst humanitarian disasters in recent history have unfolded, mainly through armed conflicts in this region. The GRC is currently supporting projects in Syria and its neighbouring countries. Learn more about the commitment of the GRC in the Middle East.

Syria: Refugee relief

The crisis in Syria has been continuously deteriorating over the years, and still there is no end in sight.
read more
Yemen: Child health

Sad record: In Yemen 1.7 million children are suffering from malnutrition. And since the start of the armed conflict in spring 2015 the situation has become even worse.

read more
North Iraq emergency relief

Since early 2014 Iraq has been suffering repeated heavy fighting. With no end in sight, in the meantime more than 3 million people have been displaced within the country.

read more
Palestinian Territories: Disaster preparedness
The German Red Cross supports the establishment of community-based disaster preparedness in Palestinian Territories.
read more
Integrated community-based disaster preparedness in East Jerusalem and Salfit

The humanitarian situation in the Palestinian Territories has again deteriorated. The unresolved Israeli/Palestinian conflict is ongoing and regularly results in serious and repeated humanitarian emergencies.

read more